

Theatre Organ Events at Plummer Auditorium 2009-10 Season

◀ Sunday September 13, 2009 2:30pm

John Giacchi kicks off the season as he brings us music from "Down Under." Join us in welcoming one of Australia's finest theatre organists.

Friday October 9, 2009 8:00pm ▶

Bob Salisbury accompanies Nosferatu,
The Father of All Horror Films

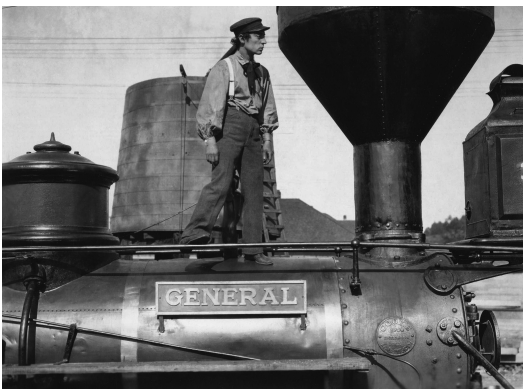

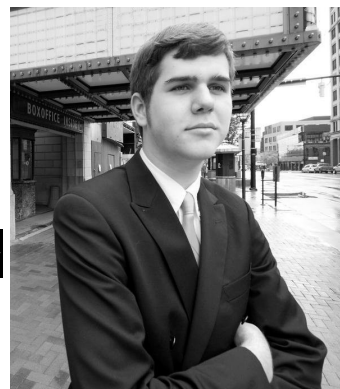

◀ Sunday January 17, 2010 2:30pm

Dean Mora and Mora's Modern Music Organist and bandleader Dean Mora brings the Big Band sound for a toe tapping afternoon of musical fun.

Sunday April 18, 2010 2:30pm ▶

Donnie Rankin, 2007 Young Theatre Organist of the Year, with an afternoon of hits, new and old.

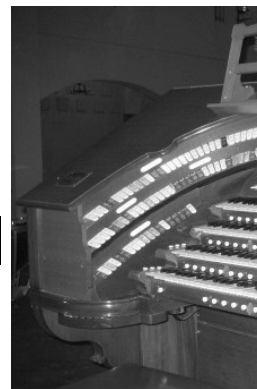

◀ Sunday June 20, 2010 2:30pm

Robert Israel accompanies a sparkling new restoration of Buster Keaton's immortal classic, The General

The Mighty Wurlitzer ▶

All events feature Plummer Auditorium's Wurlitzer theatre organ

See All 5 Great Shows for Only $68! Plus your OCTOS membership is FREE

Buy a Season Ticket and see all 5 great shows for only $68! Plus your membership in OCTOS is free with your season ticket purchase. Season tickets will go on sale on April 19th at the Cameron Carpenter concert. Buy your season tickets at the concert and get a FREE copy of Peter and the Wolf recorded by Jelani Eddington on the Plummer Auditorium Wurlitzer as our special thank you gift.

Season tickets are a great entertainment value and a great way to support Theatre Organ in Orange County. You get individual tickets for the shows. If you have to miss a show, you can give your ticket to a friend. As an OCTOS member you can buy additional tickets at member prices for your guests. Members receive our newsletter and an invitation to our biannual Open Console socials where you have the opportunity to play the Plummer's Mighty Wurlitzer yourself!